Dear Marshall:

In response to your grandfather's request, it is a great pleasure for me to send you my autograph.

I am very sorry that I will be unable to send you a signature of my brother as his family has made a decision not to give out his autograph.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles,

Forgive me for writing to you like this, but I have a grandson (Marshall Bean) with an illness which can not be cured. He is a great fan of yours.

Please, I beg of you, would you be kind enough to give him your autograph? Would there be any way of getting your brother's autograph? (John F. Dulles)
Thank you -

Respectfully,

G. L. Emery
